

Pacific Region
Infrastructure Facility

Building Infrastructure Investment Planning Capacity

PRIF Community of Practice

22 Nov 2023

Infrastructure Investment Planning

Welcome

Agenda

1. National Infrastructure Investment Planning (NIIP) – Capacity Development Planning Symposium
2. Samoa NIIP: developing the long-list and tools to present the pipeline and make it more transparent
3. Economic appraisal practitioner guide: tools to support more rigorous prioritization and prepare projects for feasibility studies and investment
4. Panel discussion and Q&A

GUEST SPEAKERS

Glenn Fawcett
PRIF Consultant
New Zealand

Talatalaga Matafeo
PRIF Consultant
Samoa

Andrew Wise
Polis partners
Australia

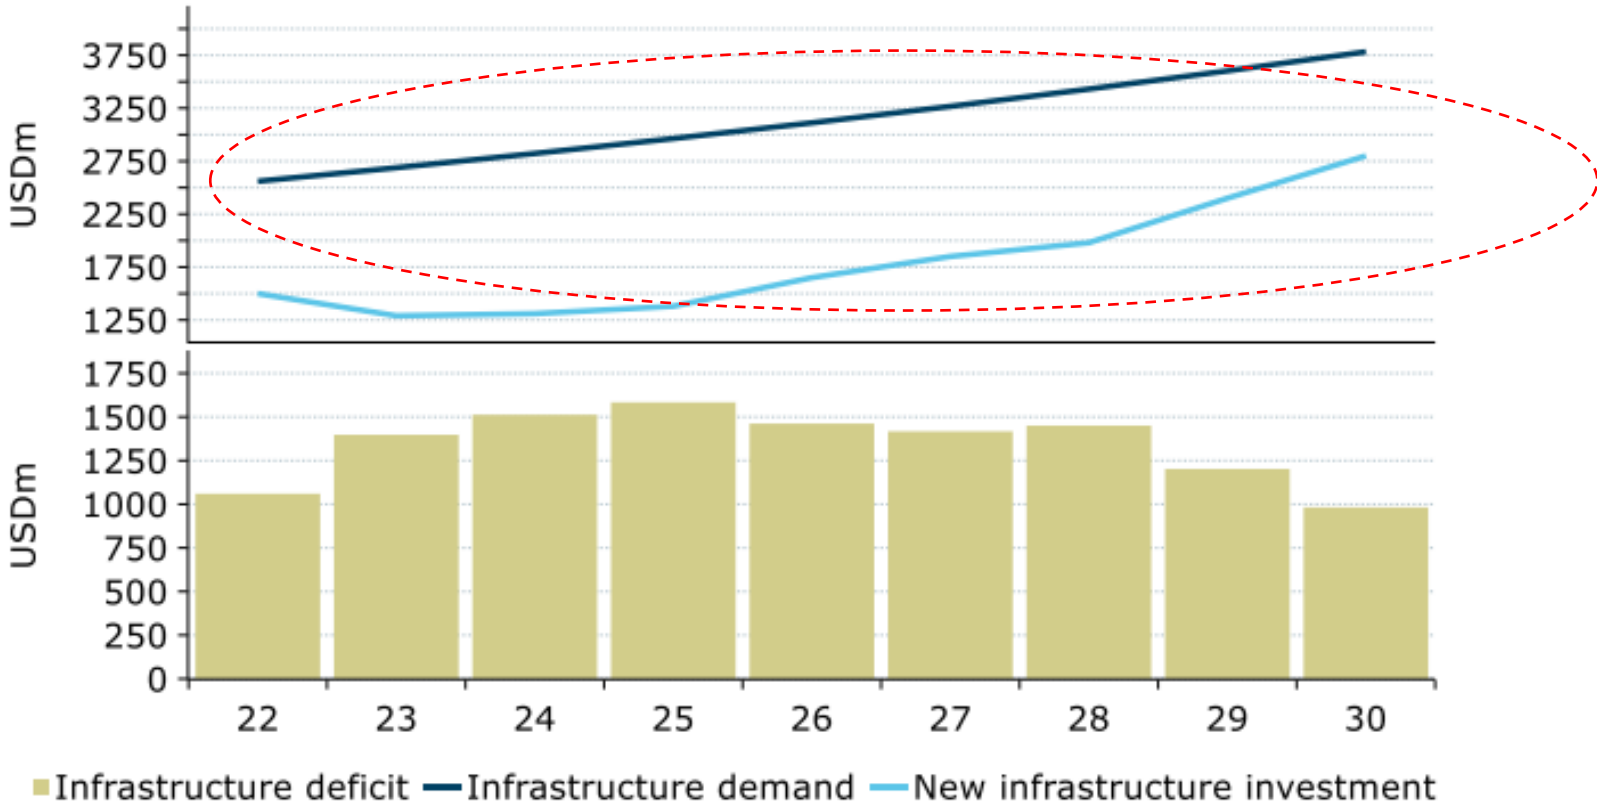

Rob Tyson
Polis partners
Australia

Infrastructure Investment Planning

Why focus on investment planning capability?

Pacific infrastructure demand, supply and deficit

Source: Macrobond, ANZ Research

Infrastructure Investment Planning

Why focus on investment planning capability?

Opportunity to strengthen investment planning and management

Summarized GCF PFM Requirement			PEFA Dimension (2016 FW)	Fiji 2020	Tonga 2020	Cook Is. 2015	Sol. Is. 2012	Samoa 2014	Vanuatu 2013	Tuvalu 2011	Marshall Islands 2012	Recent PEFA Self-Assessments & Unpublished PEFA Scores (Kiribati, Micronesia, Nauru, Palau, Papua New Guinea)
Basic PFM-related criteria	1. Corporate governance
	2. Financial reporting	Completeness of annual financial reports
		Submission of reports for external audit
		Accounting standards
	3. Budget credibility	Budget calendar
		Guidance on budget preparation
		In-year budget reports
	4. Internal and external audit	Internal audit
		External audit
	5. Robust internal controls	Payroll Controls
		Internal controls on non-salary expenditure
	6. Procurement	Procurement
	7. Transparency and accountability	Public access to fiscal information
	Specialized PFM-related criteria	Public Investment Management	Project identification, preparation and appraisal
Investment project selection
Investment project costing
Investment project monitoring

Good Substantial Medium Low or Insufficient
A B+ & B C+ & C D+, D, D* & NR

Source: IMF staff.